OUR FOOT SOLDIERS

RDRS seeks Foot Soldiers

In order to provide quality care to our animals and provide amazing community outreach with our pet therapy programs we must have continuous support.

As an RDRS Foot Solider, your tax deductible monthly donation will help us continue our work. Your contribution will help save lives, enrich lives of others in need, and help RDRS to perform amazing works.

Please consider becoming a Foot Soldier for RDRS. We need great people like you on the ground to help us.

OUR STORIES

Evie and Gavin, working together thanks to RDRS and you.

When you give a homeless pet a chance, do you know what else you give them? In a word — and in the spirit of the holidays — "hope". And we don't mean just for them...

Please meet Evie and Gavin. Evie is a Mutt-i-gree® with a traumatic past. Gavin is an Air Force veteran coping with seizures, depression, PTSD & other setbacks. These two help each other now as a loving family. How? Because of support like yours.

You see, try as she might, no home seemed to want Evie. But we saw her potential. Now she's living & training with us at Rescue Dogs Rescue Soldiers. This is where Evie met Gavin.

As a case manager for children in the foster care system, Gavin is a shoulder to lean on for so many. And now, at a time when he needs support, Evie's there. But it just wouldn't have been possible without RescueDogsRescueSoldiers and friends like you looking out for Evie.

Our caring staff believed Evie deserved every opportunity in the world to find her place. And now, she's on her way to becoming a certified service pet. She and Gavin happily go to training sessions together, and soon she'll get to go home with him and his wife, Tomisha.

Will you please donate today? I know with your help we can give more homeless pets a chance to find their new life with a human who needs them just as much.

With gratitude,
All of us at RDRS

miracles in my life

Miracles in life keep us going, even when times are hard.

OUR MISSION

We train rescue dogs as service dogs for soldiers injured in Iraq and Afghanistan. We name the dogs in honor of fallen soldiers and carefully pair the dogs with veterans to allow a better life for both soldier and dog. We work with teens in a juvenile detention facility to train the dogs.

OUR HISTORY

Liz Keller founded Glen Wild Animal Rescue in 2000 and has developed many programs designed to help animals and people. Liz was blessed with a puppy named Miracle who inspired her to dedicate her life to helping homeless and abused animals. As a result, Liz created Rescue Dogs Rescue Soldiers to help veterans.

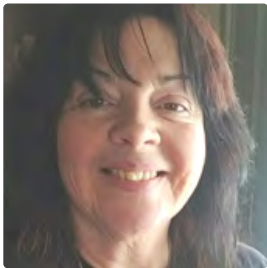

OUR MISSION

We train rescue dogs as service dogs for soldiers injured in Iraq and Afghanistan. We name the dogs in honor of fallen soldiers and carefully pair the dogs with veterans to allow a better life for both soldier and dog. We work with teens in a juvenile detention facility to train the dogs.

HOW WE HELP

RDRS helps three populations: injured Iraq and Afghanistan vets; rescued dogs; and troubled teens in juvenile detention. By working together, we are proud to help save and improve the lives of everyone involved in RDRS.

Handsome Perez now has a great home with a family in Long Island. He is so happy being an emotional support dog for a veteran firefighter who is suffering from PTSD relating to 9/11. What a wonderful connection!

Perez

Yoda is on his way to the Rikers Rovers 8 week program to continue his training. He is an amazing dog and will be available for adoption soon. If you're interested in adopting him, please contact Liz Keller at 917-553-0591 or email us at info@rescuedogsrescuesoldiers.org (mailto:Info@rescuedogsrescuesoldiers.org).

Yoda

Cadence came to us from a military family that was heartbroken because they had to move for a deployment to Texas & didn't want to give up their dog. They had a beautiful pit bull that they had to leave behind. We decided to foster their dog for them while they relocated & once settled they were re-united with their beloved pet.

Cadence

Scherer is now adopted! He was rescued from the shelter and trained by us as a therapy dog and pet assist dog. He was adopted to an amazing Veteran Ed to help him get through his daily struggles.

Scherer

Roxy is our sweet RDRS dog that we just graduated from the juvenile 8 week training program! One of the corrections officers fell in love with her during her stay & he adopted her. Good luck in your new life with your wonderful new family, Roxy.

The RDRS Pet Therapy program

We Need Your Support

We have been working at Rikers Island for 4 years now and we currently have multiple dogs in training with select juvenile units in the Rikers Rovers program. These juveniles help our rescue dogs get basic training and socialization, and the boys learn how to care for and show love to an animal in need.

Part of our community outreach is bringing our amazing dogs into schools, nursing homes, and juvenile detention centers. We have the ability to help children through the power of our dogs. Help us so we can continue to help dogs, juveniles, and veterans.

PLEASE DONATE

We need your support to continue our lifesaving work for dogs, soldiers, and troubled teens. Your donation is tax-deductible, and gratefully appreciated.

SANCTUARY

Home Is Where The Heart Is

In addition to training dogs for our Veterans and adopting out rescue dogs, a large part of what we do is provide lifetime care for dogs, cats, horses, and donkeys.

These animals came to us because they had no one. Some were abused, some were heading to slaughter, and some just needed a home. Home is where the heart is and that's what our sanctuary is...HOME for those who have none. We provide love and special care to our sanctuary crew.

We need your support to continue our mission to provide lifetime care to these sweet animals. Please consider a monthly sponsorship to help us help them.

Judy

Judy was seized during a raid. She was in the hands of a dog fighter. She loves her home here because she knows she is safe. Please consider sponsoring Judy.

Fable

Fable came to us after a very horrible experience. He was stolen from his original owner and abused by bad people. Fable takes a while to trust, but once he knows you are a friend, you are a friend for life. Fable is a great dog. Please help us take great care of him.
